Completing the form

If there is not enough space in a box provided in the form you may write 'see attached' in the box. You may then write your additional information on a separate piece of paper and attach it to the form. If you have to do this for more than one question, please use headings on the separate piece(s) of paper to show which question is being answered.

Applicant details (Part 1)

This means the applicant(s) who made the native title determination application on behalf of the native title claim group. This may be one or more persons. The name of the applicant should include the full name of each person comprising the applicant if there is more than one.

Reasons for seeking reconsideration

Part 2 asks for further details as to the basis upon which you are seeking a reconsideration. Please provide as much information as possible, addressing:

- a) which parts of the decision you do not agree with;
- b) any information you think should or should not have been taken into account when the decision was made; and
- c) any other aspect of the decision-making process that you would like to draw the Tribunal's attention to.

Declaration

The declaration should be signed by an authorised representative. Where there is no representative appointed to act, it should be signed by each of the persons comprising the applicant.

Supporting documentation

The Tribunal must consider all the information that the delegate of the Registrar was required to consider when making the initial registration test decision, and may also consider any other information that it regards as appropriate. To assist the Tribunal in processing your application promptly, please attach copies of the following documents to your application:

- a) the native title determination application (Federal Court Form 1) to be reconsidered;
- b) the registration test decision and statement of reasons for decision;
- c) any notices received from the Tribunal in relation to the decision; and
- d) any additional information you would like the Tribunal to consider in relation to the reconsideration of your claim.

Fees

There is no fee for a reconsideration application to the Tribunal.

Privacy and your application

The Tribunal will use the information you provide to process your application. We will disclose the information you give us to the relevant state or territory government and any other third party to whom procedural fairness is owed.

The decision on the reconsideration application, including any written reasons for the decision, will be published on the Tribunal's website www.nntt.gov.au and may also be published in the Federal Law Reports. If there is a challenge to a decision of the Tribunal, or a request under another law of the Commonwealth, we may need to disclose your information to a Court or to another Commonwealth agency or other persons as required or authorised by law.

Return of documents

Original documents containing additional information will be returned to you if, at the time you provide the documents, you advise in writing that you wish the documents to be returned.
