TITLE: National Native Title Tribunal Research Report Bibliographies
Introduction
The Tribunal’s Research Unit prepares bibliographies as a ready reference for anyone wanting to locate readily available, published material about Indigenous Australian people within a particular region or locality. The bibliographies are produced for general library use from reports prepared by the Tribunal for parties to native title mediations. The bibliographies are not exhaustive reference lists about any particular Indigenous group, nor is the published material necessarily an accurate or insightful report of Indigenous society. The Research Unit may update bibliographies from time to time, usually because a new research report has been reproduced for parties to mediation.

It should be noted that the contents and production of these reports are governed by time and resource constraints. They are often prepared in four to eight weeks by a single research officer with some input from a research assistant and Tribunal librarian. Generally most of the references sought for these reports are available only from the AIATSIS library, which in turn has limited resources available to supply material. Therefore care is taken to request only that material which appears relevant to the scope of a particular report.

Disclaimer: The bibliographies are a list of materials that have been used by the Research Unit of the Tribunal to provide background information for native title mediations. The Tribunal forms no view on the accuracy, completeness, or relevance of the reference material cited in these bibliographies. Most of this material is held at libraries and is available to the public. The Tribunal library may be able to assist in locating items.

Kalkadoon and Yulluna People Report
The Kalkadoon and Yulluna People report was prepared by research staff of the National Native Title Tribunal to assist in the mediation of issues arising from the Kalkadoon and Yulluna people’s native title applications (QC99/32a and QC99/32b). This report was based on publicly and readily available information relevant to the traditional location of the Kalkadoon and Yulluna groups.

Research Method
The research material reviewed in this report that concerns Kalkadoon was drawn from earlier NNTT research reports: ‘Kalkadoon & Waluwarra People’ (produced in October 1999) and ‘Kalkadoon People and Wanyi Peoples’ (produced in May 2000). The research methodology followed in collecting that material is provided in those reports and is not repeated here. Additional information on Kalkadoon was also found in reviewing material on Yulluna and this has been included in this report.

The research material reviewed in this report that concerns Yulluna was based largely on a search of the AIATSIS online catalogue, Mura, using the key word ‘Yalarnnga’. This was supplemented by relevant material and further references found in Tindale’s (1974) Aboriginal Tribes of Australia listing of ‘Jalanga’

Additional material concerning Yulluna found in the following ‘general’ references was also reviewed:
• Capell’s (1963) Linguistic Survey of Australia;
• Davidson’s (1938) A Preliminary Register of Australian Tribes and Hordes;
• Davis’s (1993) Australia’s Extant and Imputed Traditional Aboriginal Territories (map only);
• Donahue’s (1991) ‘AIATSIS Library Language Names and Community/Established Language Names’;
• Ehrlich’s (1922) Origin of Australian Beliefs (map only);
• Frazer’s (1910) Totemism and Exogamy (map only);
• Helon’s (1998) Aboriginal Australia: Register of Tribe, Clan, Horde, Linguistic Group, Language Names and AIATSIS Language Codes;
• Horton’s (1994) Encyclopaedia of Aboriginal Australia;
• O’Grady, Wurm and Hale’s (1966) Aboriginal Languages of Australia: A Preliminary Classification (map);
• Schmidt’s (1919) Die Gliederung der Australischen Sprachen (map only);
• Sutton’s (1995) Country: Aboriginal Boundaries and Land Ownership in Australia; and
• Tindale’s (1940) ‘Distribution of Australian Aboriginal Tribes: A Field Survey’:

Additional information on Yulluna was also found in reviewing material on Kalkadoon and this has been included in this report.

The following ‘filtering’ process was then applied. Of references listed on Mura only those listed as part of the ‘print collection’ were followed up, as sound tapes and film would be difficult to process given time and resource constraints. Material on microform and foreign language material was omitted for the same reason.¹ Also filtered from the list were repetitions of the same material, e.g. different editions of the same work.

All (non duplicated) references listed under Tindale (1974) were followed up.

Of the final list of print references sought, some have restrictions on access and/or were unobtainable on loan from AIATSIS or other known and readily accessible sources within the time frame allowed for this report and were not included [reasons provided in square brackets]. These references were:

• Blake, B.J (1969) MS Letters to N. B. Tindale (Maiawali tribe etc). [Reference listed in Tindale for ‘Jalanga’ - unobtainable] ¹ An exception was made in the case of Schmidt’s (1919) Die Gliederung der Australischen Sprachen which included a map relevant to this report. The text was not reviewed.
• Blake, B.J. (1975) Tape transcriptions: Galgadungu. AIATSIS call number: MS 2427. [Closed access - Deposter’s permission. Closed copying & quotation Principal and/or Depositor’s permission. Not for Inter-Library Loan]
