Persons claiming to hold native title:

Schedule A: Native Title Claim Group is an attachment to the extract.

Native title rights and interests claimed:

1. The native title rights and interests of the native title holders are the non-exclusive native title rights and interests possessed under and exercisable in accordance with the traditional laws acknowledged and traditional customs observed, including the right to conduct activities necessary to give effect to them, being:

- (a) the right to access and travel over any part of the land and waters;
- (b) the right to live on the land, and for that purpose, to camp, erect shelters and other structures;
- (c) the right to hunt, gather and fish on the land and waters;
- (d) the right to take and use the natural resources of the land and waters;
- (e) the right to access, take and use natural water on or in the land, except water captured by the holder of a pastoral lease;
- (f) the right to light fires for domestic purposes, but not for the clearance of vegetation;
- (g) the right to access and to maintain and protect sites and places on or in the land and waters that are important under traditional laws and customs;
- (h) the right to conduct and participate in the following activities on the land and waters:

- (i) cultural activities;
- (ii) ceremonies;
- (iii) meetings;
- (iv) cultural practices relating to birth and death including burial rites;
- (v) teaching the physical and spiritual attributes of sites and places on the land and waters that are important under traditional laws and customs;

(i) the right to make decisions about the use and enjoyment of the land and waters by Aboriginal people who recognise themselves to be governed by the traditional laws and customs acknowledged by the native title holders provided that the right does not extend to making any decision that purports to control the access of such persons to the land and waters;

(j) the right to share or exchange natural resources obtained on or from the land and waters, including traditional items made from the natural resources.

(k) the right to be accompanied on the land and waters by persons who, though not native title holders, are:

(i) people required by traditional law and custom for the performance of ceremonies or cultural activities on the land and waters;

(ii) people who have rights in relation to the land and waters according to the traditional laws and customs acknowledged by the native title holders;

(iii) people required by the native title holders to assist in, observe, or record traditional activities on the areas.

2. The rights and interests listed in paragraph 1 above existed and continue to exist in relation to the application area as a whole.

3. The native title rights and interests claimed do not confer possession, occupation, use and enjoyment of the application area to the exclusion of all others.

4. The applicant acknowledges that the native title rights and interests are subject to and exercisable in accordance with valid laws of the Northern Territory of Australia and the Commonwealth of Australia.

5. The common or group rights and interests comprising the native title are held by the members of the landholding groups that together comprise the native title claim group over the application area as a whole. However, the distribution of rights and interests within the group and in respect of different parts of the application area is governed by the claimants' system of traditional laws and customs, including:

- (a) the particular association that members of the native title claim group have with one or more of the landholding groups and their respective estate areas; and
- (b) individual circumstances, including age, gender, knowledge, and physical and mental capacity.

6. The activities referred to in Schedules G and M were and are undertaken in the exercise of the native title rights and interests set out in paragraph 1.
