

Attachment E

A description of the native title rights and interests claimed in relation to particular land or waters (including any activities in exercise of those rights and interests).

Native title where traditional rights are wholly recognisable

1. Paragraph [2] applies to every part of the claim area:
 - (a) where there has been no extinguishment to any extent of native title or where any extinguishment is required to be disregarded; and
 - (b) which is not subject to the public right to navigate or the public right to fish.
2. Where this paragraph [2] applies the the nature and extent of the native title rights and interests is:
 - (a) except in relation to flowing and underground waters, the right to possession, occupation, use and enjoyment to the exclusion of all others; and
 - (b) in relation to flowing and underground waters, the right to use and enjoy the flowing and underground waters, including:
 - (i) the right to hunt on, fish from, take and use the traditional resources of the flowing and underground waters; and
 - (ii) the right to take and use the flowing and underground waters.

Native title where traditional rights are partially recognisable

3. Paragraph [4] applies to every part of the claim area to which paragraph [2] does not apply.
4. Where this paragraph [4] applies, the nature and extent of the native title rights and interests is that they confer the following non-exclusive rights on the members of the native title claim group, including the right to conduct activities necessary to give effect to them:
 - (a) the right to live, being to enter and remain, camp and erect temporary shelters and other temporary structures for that purpose and to travel over and visit any part of the claim area;
 - (b) the right to hunt, fish, gather and use the traditional resources of the claim area;

- (c) the right to take and use water on the claim area; and
- (d) the right to engage in cultural activities and the transmission of cultural knowledge on the claim area, including:
 - (i) visiting places of cultural or spiritual importance and protecting those places by carrying out lawful activities to preserve their physical or spiritual integrity; and
 - (ii) conducting burials, ceremony and ritual.