Clause 5.1

Statements of the kind mentioned in ss. 24EB(1) or 24EBA(1) or (4)

6.1 The parties agree that the right to negotiate provisions in Part 2, Division 3, Subdivision P of the NTA are not intended to apply to any Future Act* listed in Schedule D.

6.2 Subject to compliance by the parties with the provisions of this Agreement, the parties:

6.2.1 agree to the doing of certain Future Acts in respect of the ILUA Area, being:

- the grant by the State of the Production Licence to the proponent and to any consent required by or on behalf of the proponent pursuant to the Production Licence; and
- the use of the Production Licence and of any consent required pursuant to the Production Licence, by the proponent; and
- the Future Acts listed in Schedule D.

6.2.2 agree that any such Future Acts done in respect of the ILUA Area are valid.

Clause 35

“Future Act” has the same meaning given to that term in section 233 of the NTA, and includes those classes of Future Acts listed in Schedule D.

“NTA” means the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth)

“PA” means the Petroleum Act 1998 (Vic)

“Production Licence” means any Production Licence that is applied for by the proponent in the future and is proposed to be granted and registered by the State pursuant to the PA in respect of the ILUA Area. “Production Licence” also includes any consolidation or variation of the Production Licence pursuant to the PA or any applicable laws.

Schedule D: List of Future Acts covered by the Agreement

1. The Production Licence; and

2. All infrastructure (including without limitation those things within the definition of 'plant' in the PA) and all other land tenure or land access titles, approvals, consents, conditions, rights etc that may be required by the proponent for use of the Production Licence under applicable laws.
