Agreement to Future Acts

Clause 7

7.1 The Native Title Parties consent on their own behalf and on behalf of the Native Title Claim Group to:

- (a) the grant of the Term Lease over the ILUA Area for a term up to 30 Years;
- (b) to the extent that it is a Future Act, the construction of the Boundary Fence.

7.2 The parties expressly acknowledge that the State may rely upon this Indigenous Land Use Agreement for the purpose of granting the Term Lease to the Association.

7.3 The parties agree that the Non-Extinguishment Principle applies to the Future Acts in clause 7.1.

Clause 1.1 of the agreement includes the following definitions:

"Term Lease" means a term lease granted under the Land Act 1994 on terms the same as or substantially the same as the conditions contained in Schedule 3.

"ILUA Area" means the part of Lot 34 on Plan USL535, Parish of Castleton, County of Gilbert as shown in Schedule 1. (Schedule 1 further defines the ILUA area as "that part of lot 34 on Plan USL535 Parish Castleton County Gilbert as shown as Lot 6 on Plan CMS01/089".)

"Boundary Fence" means a good and substantial fence to the satisfaction of the minister administering the Land Act 1994 and approved by the Weapons Branch under the Weapons Act 1990 (Qld) constructed generally in accordance with the alignment shown in Schedule 2.
