

Schedule 4 – How the native title is held

[See paragraph 3 of the Determination]

The native title is held by the native title holders as follows:

- (1) Jabirr Jabirr/Ngumbarl people hold native title in that part of the Determination Area coloured yellow in Map A of Schedule 8 (in this schedule, the map) which part includes the areas Carnot Bay, Ngadalargin (Baldwin Creek), and Twin Peaks (Warnjinmirr and Djibbinj) as labelled on the map and the waters adjoining those areas;
- (2) Nyul Nyul people hold native title in that part of the Determination Area coloured blue in the map, which part includes the areas Beagle Bay (Ngarlan), Middle Lagoon, Chimney Rocks, Binduk, Loongabid, Weedong, Henry Well, Djilang, Djugark, Murphy Creek, Tappers Inlet, Neem, Banana Well (Burrduk) and Bungarduk as labelled on the map and the waters adjoining those areas;
- (3) Nimanburr people hold native title in that part of the Determination Area coloured red on the map, which part includes the areas Goodenough Bay, Fraser River, Dora Spring, Valentine Island, Madarr, La Djadarr, Lake Paterson and Disaster Bay as labelled on map and the waters adjoining those areas;
- (4) Jabirr Jabirr/Ngumbarl people, Nyul Nyul people and Nimanburr people hold native title in that part of the Determination Area coloured white on the map, for their respective rights and interests in accordance with traditional laws and customs; but the rights and interests of Nimanburr people do not extend west of the section of the Broome to Cape Leveque Road shown on Map A in Schedule 8.

Note 1: for the avoidance of doubt, the areas coloured yellow, blue and red on the map are areas uncontroversially identified by reference to language identity and it is to be understood that Jabirr Jabirr/Ngumbarl, Nyul Nyul and Nimanburr areas respectively may extend beyond the edging of the coloured areas.
