

SCHEDULE 5

DESCRIPTION OF THE NATIVE TITLE HOLDERS

The native title holders are those Aboriginal people who:

(a) are descendants of the following apical ancestors:

(i) Ap-barra (Uppaarawa) and Dharriga

Annie Tira

Biddie (mother of Fred Carnamah)

Billy and Judy Thompson

Brindy

Cissie Broad

Eeranyoo

Eliza

Galena

Jane Cotter (mother of Sarah Mabel Bell and Patrick John Bell)

Jane Hunt

Jibija (Rosie Jones)

John Yuna Councillor

Lizzy Flynn

Mary Gingina

Mary Nundie

Nellie

Noogy (grandmother of Minnie Campbell)

Punch

Rosie (mother of Walter Ninghan)

Rosie Coleman

Sarah Jane Campbell

Sarah Broad

Sarah Feast (Jooldarnoo)

Shilling

Timothy Benjamin

Uanda

Woondoorra

Wyoo and Myonda; or

- (ii) any other Aboriginal persons who are recognised by Yamatji People as Yamatji and as having had rights in the Determination Area under traditional Yamatji laws and customs.

The term “descendants” includes Aboriginal persons who have been adopted as children or raised (grown up) as part of the family of descendants of those apicals referred to above; and

- (b) In addition to (a), those descendants must also identify as Yamatji People who are connected under the traditional Yamatji law and customs with the land and waters in the Determination Area and be accepted as such by other Yamatji People.