PERSONS CLAIMING TO HOLD NATIVE TITLE:

See Schedule A Native Title Claim Group attached to this extract.

REGISTERED NATIVE TITLE RIGHTS AND INTERESTS:

The following Native Title Rights & Interests were entered on the Register on 26/11/2021

1. The native title rights and interests of the native title holders are the non-exclusive rights to:

- (a) access, remain on and use the land and waters for any purpose;
- (b) access, take, or use the resources of the land and waters for any purpose; and
- (c) maintain and protect places, areas and things of significance under traditional laws and customs, and, to the extent only that the following rights are not encompassed by the rights described in (a), (b) or (c) the rights to:

- (d) live on the land;
- (e) erect shelters and other structures;
- (f) light fires;
- (g) conduct and participate in the following activities on the land and waters:
 - (i) cultural activities;
 - (ii) ceremonies;
 - (iii) meetings;
 - (iv) cultural practices relating to birth and death including burial rites;
 - (v) teaching the physical and spiritual attributes of sites and places on the land and waters;
- (h) make decisions about the use and enjoyment of the land and waters by Aboriginal people who recognise themselves to be governed by the traditional laws and customs acknowledged by the native title holders; and
- (i) be accompanied on the land and waters by persons who, though not native title holders, are:
 - (i) people required by traditional law and custom for the performance of ceremonies or cultural activities on the land and waters;
 - (ii) people who have rights in relation to the land and waters according to the traditional laws and customs acknowledged by the native title holders; and
 - (iii) people required by the native title holders to assist in, observe, or record traditional activities on the areas.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the rights described in (d) to (i) above is to be interpreted as confining or limiting the meaning or scope of the rights set out in (a) to (c).

2. The native title rights and interests claimed do not confer:

- (a) possession, occupation, use and enjoyment of the application area to the exclusion of all others; or
- (b) any right to control access to, or use of, the application area or its resources.

3. The applicant acknowledges that the native title rights and interests are subject to and exercisable in accordance with:

- (a) the traditional laws and customs of the claimants; and
- (b) valid laws of the Northern Territory of Australia and the Commonwealth of Australia.

4. The common or group rights and interests comprising the native title are held by the members of the landholding groups that together comprise the native title claim group over the application area as a whole. However, the distribution of rights and interests within the group and in respect of different parts of the application area is governed by the claimants' system of traditional laws and customs, including:

- (a) the particular association that members of the native title claim group have with one or more of the landholding groups and their respective estate areas; and

(b) individual circumstances, including age, gender, knowledge, and physical and mental capacity.

5. The activities referred to in Schedules G and M were and are undertaken in the exercise of the native title rights and interests set out in paragraph 1.
