

National Native Title
Tribunal

How the National Native Title Tribunal can help to resolve a native title dispute

National Native Title Tribunal (NNTT) assistance can support the management of native title rights and interests for the benefit of all common law holders.

So where do we start? Step 1...

Finding solutions yourself

Have the steps in the PBC's Rule Book about resolving disputes been followed?

Contacting the NNTT

If a native title holder or a PBC is stuck, give us a call, email us or come into the office.

Fitting all the pieces together

The right information might be enough for you to sort things out.

Working together to obtain the right information

Let's talk about what information or people might be able to help you.

Have you thought about mediation?

The NNTT can provide mediation assistance so everyone can be heard.

Dispute resolution

The NNTT has mediators who are experienced in native title to help you resolve your dispute.

A Reconciled Future

Call us on (07) 3052 4040 | Email us at PBCassist@nntt.gov.au | Visit us online at www.nntt.gov.au

Do you want to learn more about our Dispute Resolution Services?
Our Dispute Resolution Fact Sheet will help.

NNTT is not able to provide legal advice. You should seek legal advice from your representative body or an independent legal practitioner.