4. Paragraph [5] applies to every part of the claim area to which paragraph [2] does not apply.

5. Where this paragraph [5] applies, the rights and interests possessed under traditional laws and customs are properly interpreted as the rights of possession, occupation, use and enjoyment of land and waters as against the whole world, but the native title rights and interests recognised by the common law of Australia are the rights to do all such things as may be done under the right referred to in paragraph [2] save for controlling the access to or the use of land or waters by others; being the (non-exclusive) rights to:

(c) protect places, areas and things of traditional significance on the land and waters.
